

Villa Serena

ANTIGUA

Dramatically positioned 120ft above the warm azure waters of Nonsuch bay on the east coast of Antigua, Villa Serena commands stunning views across the sheltered bay to the Atlantic Ocean beyond. Antigua's rolling tropical landscape completes this Caribbean idyll. Cleverly designed to bring the cooling breeze through the property the villa is a comfortable haven.

This new architect designed luxury villa has 3 spacious en-suite bedrooms all with showers and stunning views, try reading a book or watching the occasional super-yacht go by from your balcony love seat. The 3rd bedroom is in a separate self-contained guest suite. The cinema/playroom keeps the children entertained when they're not in the pool or down on the beach. The spacious living room and kitchen area leads out to the infinity edge pool and elevated massage pool – the best room in the house!! Villa Serena is a great space for socialising or just going local with some serious chilling!

Villa Serena is set within the grounds of Nonsuch Bay Resort where guests can enjoy the two restaurants, bar, reception services, kids club, private sandy beach, 3 infinity edge swimming pools and extensive water-sports facilities. The resort boasts a sailing club with an extensive fleet of boats, the bay is rumoured to be the best small yacht sailing destination in the Caribbean.

About Antigua & Pampering

About Antigua

This Caribbean island really does have it all; idyllic white sandy beaches with turquoise waters and azure horizons, hidden coves and secluded bays and a magical world of coral reefs.

Antigua is the largest of the Leeward Islands in the Eastern Caribbean and relatively easy to explore. With the trade winds keeping the air light and low humidity all year round, wandering the rolling terrain and tropical parks can be an absolute delight.

Antigua's waters are renowned for international boat racing with Sailing Week prominent on the island's event calendar in April. English Harbour buzzes with activity during the festivities and the yachts moored and anchored within Nelson's Dockyard are a truly spectacular sight.

The island's heritage and culture is displayed with pride, both in its architecture and celebrated sites such as Shirley Heights which is particularly popular on Sunday afternoons, as people relax and listen to calypso music whilst enjoying stunning views over English Harbour. All around the island there are examples of excellent fine dining, restaurants offering international cuisine and local delicacies. Antigua has a laid-back atmosphere, ideal for those wishing to unwind and forget everyday life but there is also an air of elegance born from its history and rich culture and of course, scenery that is simply exquisite.
